

William C. Bond

Pro Se Litigation
500 W. University Parkway, # 4 L
Baltimore, Maryland 21210
443.970.2887
proselitigator@aol.com

December 20, 2020

The Hon. Richard D. Bennett via: Email

U.S. District Judge
United States District Court for the District of Maryland
Baltimore Division
101 West Lombard Street
Baltimore, Maryland 21201

RE: Criminal Action No.: 14-00186-RDB-1

Dear Judge Bennett:

I write to ask that you reconsider your orders denying the unsealing of the attorney disqualification documents because of new facts. While persistent, I continue in good faith and understand my standing is only as a member of the public seeking to vindicate certain rights under the First Amendment and the common law.

On Wednesday, the government filed a superseding indictment in the Ravenell prosecution adding attorney Joshua Treem and a private investigator as defendants. See 19-cr-00449-LO (D. Md.).¹ The next day, The Baltimore Sun wrote an extensive story about the filing. See <https://www.baltimoresun.com/news/crime/bs-md-ci-cr-ravenell-more-charges-20201218-x2bpanbdevedjo3mn2yo4niive-story.html>.

This 50-page-long Treem “talking” indictment had a lot to say. The government appears to have negated any continued reason to keep the subject disqualification papers here still sealed by making public the allegations and transcripts within the new indictment. In the alternative, outside the identities of “Lawyers 1 & 2” and any specific information strictly limited to grand jury confidentiality or rules, redactions rather than complete sealing would appear to more closely satisfy the public’s rights.

There also is the new-discovered matter of a letter Treem wrote this Court. The indictment goes at length into the contents of this letter and quotes parts of it. While there is no telling whether this letter was put onto the docket under seal, if it was, it would also appear to qualify for unsealing.

¹ Please see: Exhibit no. 1.

I ask for the Court to treat this letter as a motion to reconsider its orders denying the unsealing of the attorney disqualification documents and order unsealed or in redacted form the subject records.

Thank you very much for your consideration.

I hope this letter finds you well.

Very truly & respectfully yours,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'WCB', is positioned above the printed name.

William C. Bond

cc: Leo Joseph Wise, AUSA USAO MD via: Email
Matthew James Maddox, AUSA USAO MD via: Email
Kenneth Sutherland Clark, AUSA USAO MD via: Email